

Data Policy

There's a new Help center!

This documentation page won't be updated and is going away soon.

Visit <https://help.whiteboards.io/> for up-to-date documentation with step-by-step guides, videos, and all the tips&tricks you need to become a Whiteboards master!

Most of questions related to data policy are answered in the EULA and Privacy Policy.

Your whiteboards data:

- is stored in Jira or Confluence
- is securely stored in Google Cloud Platform
- can be removed on your request
- is not accessible for anyone except you, and your users accordingly to the permissions

We DO NOT store any personal data. We DO NOT store Jira issues data.

If you think something on this page is missing or you have any security-related questions please let us know at Whiteboards Support Portal or support@whiteboards.io.
